

Ms. Crystal Griffen is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) for the Family Advocacy Program at Commander Navy Installation Command (CNIC) in Washington, D.C. and began her career with the Navy in 2009. Ms. Griffen serves as the technical expert and principal advisor to CNIC and is directly responsible for leading, managing and supervising the Counseling, Advocacy and Prevention Program. Within this program's portfolio is the Domestic Abuse Victim Advocacy Program, the New Parent Support Program and crises intervention and clinical counseling services. Ms. Griffen began her career in federal service working for the Marine Corps as a Family Advocacy Program Clinician providing treatment and intervention services to victims and offenders of domestic and child abuse. After serving in this capacity for nearly 5 years, Ms. Griffen joined the Headquarters Marine Corps team where she assisted in the development of policy and service delivery for family advocacy and clinical counseling programs from 2006-2009.

Ms. Griffen's career encompasses more than 27 years working at the federal and state level in the fields of social work and human services, providing support in the child welfare, domestic violence, crises intervention, and policy arenas. Ms. Griffen earned her Master's Degree in Social Work from East Carolina University and became a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in 2000.