

Dr. Paulette Hubbert holds a Doctorate in Philosophy, a Masters in Social Work and an undergraduate degree in Social Psychology. She is a native of Kansas City, Missouri, a retired U. S. Marine and the proud mother of two boys. She has over 25 years of experience working with diverse groups and populations in Clinical, Military, and Educational Environments. In addition, her expertise extends to the areas of Leadership Development, Management, Program Development, Education, Prevention Education, Social Work, Mental Health, and Substance Abuse.

Paulette has over 25 years of experience in developing and conducting seminars, trainings and workshops in the aforementioned areas, and in the areas of stress and anger management, spiritual growth and enrichment, women's issues, self-esteem, substance abuse, domestic violence and family dynamics.