

Ms. Jacqueline T. Richardson serves currently as an action officer for the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management (ACSIM) in the Soldier and Family Readiness Division (ISS). From July 2005- December 2009, she served as the Victim Advocacy Program Manager at Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation Command, HQ Department of Army. She is a licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) and Licensed Marriage and Family Counselor (LMFT), with over 25 years of clinical and management experience serving both the military and civilian communities. Ms. Richardson started social work in the military community in 1990, where she was employed as a Family Advocacy Social Worker in Mainz and Wiesbaden, Germany. She continued employment in the domestic violence arena at Quantico Marine Corps Base, Quantico, VA, and Naval District Washington, in Washington, D.C. From 1995-2005, Ms. Richardson served service members and military families in several capacities to include, Case Manager, Social Worker, Family Advocacy Representative, Chief of Clinical Services, and the Naval District Washington Regional Counseling and Advocacy Program Manager.

Ms. Richardson's educational background includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Social Work from Morgan State University and a Master of Social Work Degree from the University of Maryland. Ms. Richardson's most prized accomplishment was organizing the first Annual Walk-A-Thon for Four County Mental Health Center in Logansport, Indiana, where she served as the Community Support Program Manager for Chronically Mentally ill adults. Ms. Richardson also relishes her experience as a School Social Worker in Wichita, Kansas, whereby she wrote and executed an award winning mini-grant entitled "Enhancing Student's Test Scores through Cooperative Learning between Children and their Parents". Her most recent accomplishments relates to her leadership in enhancing the Army Victim Advocacy Program, that promotes victim safety and ensures victims of sexual assault and domestic violence access to 24/7 support from educated, highly motivated and trained victim advocates. Ms. Richardson's community services include Co-Director of Asbury Food Pantry, Washington, D.C., and secretary on the Board of Directors for Asbury Dwellings, a senior citizens complex in historic Washington, D.C. Ms. Richardson is the wife of a retired Air Force officer, who currently serves as a civil servant at National Geospatial Intelligence Agency (NGA). Ms. Richardson is the recipient of numerous awards and decorations, to include the Civilian Superior Performance Award and Achievement Medal for Civilian Service.