Terri,

What the heck happened yesterday and why is the panel not listening to me or other survivors that know first hand what happens, what the command does and does not do? Why are they continuing to side with rapist and want rape to continue?

Julie

Yes, you have my permission to post my account, but please remove my name. After reading about what happened yesterday it is clear to me that the panel is not listening to survivors. So please post this because I am sick of not being heard and sick of rapists being protected by commands

Ms. Smoot,

Do I have your permission to forward your e-mail and account to the Panel members and post them on our website? I would remove your e-mail address. Under the Federal Advisory Committee Act, submissions to the Panel must also be made available to the public. If you don't want your e-mail or account posted on our website, I can still provide to the Panel and maintain a copy here in our files should a member of the public wish to come in and read our files, if you wish.

Terri A. Saunders
Deputy Staff Director

Dear Sir or Ma'am,

The damn chain of command will never give a damn about rape survivors or stopping rape. They allow rapists to continue to serve, promote them, send them to another A school so that they can continue to rape. I am sick of people listening to Commanders that do nothing but protect rapists. What is so dang special about a rapist?

Here is what happened to me and it has changed my life forever and the @#$$@$$@#$$@$$@# is still freaking serving.

Sincerely,

Julie Smoot
