Sir and Ma'am,

This is an email [REDACTED] and I received from [REDACTED] in the United States v. [REDACTED] case.

I don't think I have any other emails, and I haven't gotten any letters. Most of our victims have said "thank you" to me in person or over the phone.

V/R,

Thank you both. I couldn't have continued without your support and for that I am very grateful.

Was so good to get home to [REDACTED]. Not that it matters at this point, but thought it might interest you to know that it was through Facebook friends that [REDACTED] knew about the engagement. He had approached 2 medics who had worked at JPAC (one now retired) with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] was friends with on Facebook), asking them if they'd heard from [REDACTED], that they'd been really good friends who had lost touch, wondering how [REDACTED] life was going, etc. etc. [REDACTED] spoke to them both over the weekend, letting them know that he and [REDACTED] had never been friends, never even knew each other, but did not disclose the situation. Another example of [REDACTED] lies and lack of integrity.

It's so good to be home and again, thankful that this is behind me.

All the best,

[REDACTED]

I wish we could have gotten a different outcome for you. I am very glad you had the strength to stand up for yourself, not only that night, but also through this entire process. I know it hasn't been easy, but you held him accountable for what he did just by your willingness to testify against him. Not everyone has the courage to do what you did.

You have a great life with a lot of people supporting you, and you are inspiration. I wish you all the best!

Take care,

Aloha [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

I wanted to thank you both again for supporting me through the trial and doing your best to prosecute [REDACTED]

Although it's been difficult to wrap my head around the verdict, I am relieved the trial is over and my fear of him is gone. I realized that much of my fear was related to what he might do after being released from prison, had he been convicted.

I spoke with my attorney yesterday who is attempting to contact [REDACTED] civil attorney to see if they intend to proceed with the civil case. At this time, irregardless of what they decide, I feel that it's best for me to simply move on. I am so grateful that my life is good and I have a good place to go back to on Sunday. My family and friends have continued to stand by me and support me throughout all of this and everyone knows the truth. His live as he knew it is over and that's enough justice for me.

Please give my best to [REDACTED] You're all awesome.

[REDACTED] I want to first apologize for my delayed response - I travel quite a bit, but am now back at Fort Belvoir for at least a few weeks.

Secondly, I want to both apologize for what you've had to go through, but to also commend you for your obvious strength. I understand your appreciation of [REDACTED] but I hope you understand that you, and other survivors like you, are an inspiration to us as well. We simply prosecute the case and hope to achieve some sort of justice, but it pales in comparison to the strength and integrity of character required of a victim to not only report an offense, but to maintain composure through what is, to understate, and emotionally taxing process.

I'm a huge fan of [REDACTED] as well, and I am grateful for your email. I hope this finds you and your family well.

Respectfully,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Hello. My name is [REDACTED] I was a victim along with my two children [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and a witness in a recent court martial case US v. [REDACTED] at Fort Polk, LA. If you're not familiar with the case it is a case where [REDACTED] whom I knew physically abused and raped me while I was pregnant, physically abused my then 2 year old son and tried to kill my unborn child.

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] was my special victim prosecutor and a Godsend. Tears fill my eyes as I write this because the events that took place hurt me and my family deeply. [REDACTED] treated me with the upmost care and respect almost like royalty and I did not have to feel ashamed or dirty as I went through the trial. I trusted no one after what happened to me but I was able to trust him.

[REDACTED] constantly kept me informed of the process and what was happening and when it was going to happen. Anything I felt uneasy about he assured me everything was going to be ok and helped me keep my eye on the bigger picture.

In the courtroom the way [REDACTED] spoke and presented his case you knew that he believed me and he wanted justice. He was very well prepared for my case, I know that he had other cases but sometimes it felt like my case was the only case he was working. I am very pleased with his performance. I even thought at the trial the way he was speaking to the accused that [REDACTED] was going to stand up and give a full confession right then and there. I'm not sure what type of training [REDACTED] received but I applaud the Army for their decision to add special victim prosecutors like [REDACTED]

The trial came and went but [REDACTED] didn't stop there even though we did not get the results expected, I did receive some justice. With the help of [REDACTED] I was able to be heard. I know that everyone in that courtroom believed me however I guess I did not have all the elements required to prove my case fully so [REDACTED] could be found guilty of all charges and specifications.

Thank you for all that you do and I just needed to let someone know that the best part of going through the actual trial was having a special victim prosecutor like [REDACTED].

Very Respectfully,

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

thank you for being there for me through all of this. you made it a little more like home away from home. you are another person that I will never forget. you stood behind me and believed me. That being said I wanted to thank you and let you know I won't forget you.

Thank you.
Two small words
for such a big feeling.

[redacted], [redacted], [redacted] & Everyone else!

I just wanted to again say thank you for the time, effort and hard work you've all done. I really do appreciate all your help and support but most importantly your belief in me. Please know that I know you all have done all you could and I'm grateful for that. You'll never know what that has done for me. Thank you!

Much thanks

I stopped by this morning to drop a few things off to [REDACTED] and you all and to say thank you for everything you all have done. For the time, effort and work you put into this case but most importantly to say thank you for believing me. I know you all tried and did your best and for that I appreciate you all so much. Thank you for your kindness and understanding. You'll never know what that has meant to me. Thank you for the closure on this situation.

Sincerely

Yes. That does help. The list that I had was different, which is why I was confused. So that is nice to see. I just had missed out on what the exact charges were.

[REDACTED] is doing wonderful. She is sleeping again and was so happy to sleep through the night Tuesday night. You have no idea how much I appreciate your help! There has been so much relief in our house.
