Dear Captain [redacted]

I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude for all of your hard and diligent work on behalf of our son [redacted]. You have been a blessing and I can never thank you enough. I have just sent to you a letter on [redacted] behalf as requested by my son. His sisters [redacted] and [redacted] are also sending you letters...probably tonight also. If you have not received this letter or their letters, please contact me. E-mail or my number at [redacted] will be fine to accomplish this. His sisters will not have problems I'm sure. I told you once that I was not computer savvy so please let me know if I was unsuccessful in my task. Once again, I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude for all your help. With greatest respect and gratitude, [redacted]

Army Victim/Witness Liaison Program Evaluation

For use of this form, see AR 27-10; the proponent agency is TJAG.

Victim/witness assistance is extremely important to the Army. Military installations around the world have established comprehensive programs to enhance and protect the rights of victims throughout the military criminal justice system. To assist victims/witnesses of crimes investigated or prosecuted by the U.S. Department of the Army, Army Victim/Witness Liaisons are appointed by Army Staff Judge Advocates at the various posts in the United States and overseas.

The Army Victim/Witness Liaison Program Office requests your input to evaluate the current services provided by Army Victim/Witness Liaisons. Your responses and comments will provide valuable information that will be used to improve current victim/witness support.

1. I was a victim/witness in a crime that was investigated or prosecuted by the U.S. Department of the Army:
- Yes, I was a victim.
- Yes, I was a witness.

Good morning [REDACTED]. This is [REDACTED] I met with you briefly on May 7, 2013. I just wanted to take this moment to say thank you for meeting with me. I certainly do appreciate everything. Thank you for talking to me and making me feel a little bit better I know I was so broken down that day. It was just overwhelming being back in Virginia and seeing my husband the previous day. I sure wasn't ready for it but thank you for being there for me.

I hope you had a safe flight back. How is [REDACTED] holding up since the trial?

Just want to follow-up with you about your travel. I need to get a copy of your receipts so we can finalize your travel reimbursement. Please email me the receipts if possible. After I receive the receipts, I will have to generate a document that will need your signature. I will send that to you after we receive the receipts.

Talk to you soon. Thank you again for your cooperation.

V/r,
