

Ms. Tanya Rogers

Tanya Rogers, MSW, has been a Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) Program Analyst for Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC) since March 2012. Ms. Rogers' career encompasses more than 15 years working in the fields of social work and human services providing support in the criminal justice, nonprofit, child welfare, crisis intervention, and policy arenas. In 2008 Ms. Rogers assumed the SAPR Program Supervisor position for Hampton Roads Naval Installations, ensuring the installation SARCs were providing direct support within their assigned installation as well as providing oversight of the SAPR Victim Advocates. Before joining the Navy SAPR Program, Ms. Rogers served as a Therapist for Pennsylvania Counseling Services from 2007 to 2008 and as a Correctional Counselor Program Leader for the Arkansas Department of Corrections Sex Offender Screening and Risk Assessment Program from 2005 to 2007. Ms. Rogers is a Navy spouse and also served honorably in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard from 1997-2005.