Claudia J. Bayliff is an attorney and educator with twenty-five years of experience working on issues related to sexual assault. She is currently serving as the National Judicial Education Program's (NJEP) Project Attorney, developing judicial educational materials about sexual assault and helping to implement a nationwide, comprehensive plan for judicial education about sexual assault. She also consults with organizations, civilian and military, to help them improve their response to sexual violence.

Ms. Bayliff has extensive experience in working with the military sexual assault prevention and response programs. She was the first Chief of the United States Air Force's worldwide, $18 million+ Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program. She was responsible for administering the new Air Force program, including developing and implementing the Air Force's sexual assault prevention and response policy. For her work with the Air Force, Ms. Bayliff was awarded the Department of the Air Force's Award for Exemplary Civilian Service. She has also consulted with the Department of the Navy, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Army and the National Guard to help them develop their sexual assault prevention strategies, and with United States Army Criminal Investigation Division (CID) to assist them in their efforts to improve how they investigate sexual assault cases. In addition, Ms. Bayliff works with the South Dakota and West Virginia National Guard.

Prior to that, she was NJEP's Project Attorney for its Understanding Sexual Violence grants from October 1996 to August 2005. Ms. Bayliff served as the Assistant Director of the Boulder County Rape Crisis Team from 1989 to 1993. She also taught classes on women and the law at the University of Colorado in Boulder and Denver. She served as faculty for the Colorado Ending Violence Against Women Project (EVAW), a statewide multidisciplinary team. In addition, she presents at conferences and professional organizations throughout the United States, Canada and Europe about violence against women and children.
